SANTIAGO & WATERFALL

Full Day Hiking

Duration: Approximately 7 hours

Available Year Round

DESCRIPTION

It's a little less than an hour drive from Cabo, through the small agricultural town of Santiago, out to the canyon where fresh water flows over huge granite boulders making gorgeous natural pools. Your guide leads you along a canyon path as he gives descriptions of the flora and fauna found here in the Baja. A 45 foot waterfall cascades into a large pool where we stop for a swim or if you are an adrenaline junkie jump from the top. It's hard to believe this oasis exists in the middle of the desert.

The hike into canyon de la Zorra is a great way to explore the base of our mountain range, the Sierra de la Laguna.

We suggest wearing your bathing suit and closed toe shoes proper for hiking.
